

Visual Arts Instructors

Pyramid Tampa, an arts-based day training center for adults with developmental disabilities in Tampa, FL, seeks full time, part time and on-call arts instructors dedicated to enriching students' lives.

The person we seek will help students experience arts activities, provide technical training in a variety of art disciplines and assist students in developing their artistic abilities. Visual arts background essential. Must be able to teach at least two art disciplines at a high level. Must be comfortable with our students and personal care tasks. Must also be able to see their remarkable potential.

Salary is $8.20 and up, depending on experience. Good salary growth depending on performance. Weekday hours, full time, part time or on-call. Group health insurance, 401k for full time positions.

Pyramid maintains a drug-free workplace and proudly adheres to all EEOC standards.

For the person seeking a job that truly makes a difference in people's lives, this is an empowering and rewarding opportunity, whether full-time or part-time.

Pyramid Tampa is part of a six-program private non-profit organization and is highly regarded in its field for its creative and effective visual and performance art-based training programs. To learn more about this exciting company, please continue to browse our website.

If you think this unique opportunity may be right for you, please complete the application on this web site, and provide a resume and a cover letter to Director Tom Eckman, teckman@pyramidinc.org or fax to (813) 931-3751. You may also call (813) 931-3986 for more information.