

Art Instructor for Adults with Developmental Disabilities

Pyramid Tallahassee is seeking an art instructor to teach the principles of art to adults with developmental disabilities.

The person we seek is a trained artist who can teach in at least two art disciplines, and is comfortable with people who have disabilities. Some personal care required.

Pyramid is a private non-profit company that provides day training. Visual and performing arts is a core component of our services. Students exhibit and perform extensively in the community and around the state.

This is a full time hourly position, though it is possible that we would consider part time. Salary is $8.20 an hour and up depending on background. Group health insurance and 401K are available. Salary and professional growth prospects are good.

Candidates must have a safe driving record and a clean criminal record. Pyramid is a Drug-free workplace and an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Complete application on this page, send with resume to Director Lana Smith at lsmith@pyramidinc.org or fax to 850-576-1048. For further information, call Ms. Smith at 850-574-4978.