

Performance Arts Instructor

Pyramid Pensacola is seeking an instructor to teach music, as well as either dance or drama to adults with developmental disabilities. For the right person, this will be the most rewarding job you will ever have. Pyramid performers are committed to their craft and have attracted admiring audiences who appreciate their talent, entertainment value and professionalism.

The job is 35 hours per week; minimum of $8.20 an hour (more depending on experience); full benefits including group health insurance. There is opportunity for salary and professional growth.

The person we seek must have functional musical skills, play an accompaniment instrument like piano or guitar and have a pleasant singing voice; able to teach at least one performance area at a high level and teach a range of skills at a basic level; teach group music and movement classes; be willing to learn and assist with other performance skills as needed; be comfortable with people who are disabled and willing to assist with personal care duties.

Pyramid Pensacola is a drug-free employer, proudly complies with EEOC and requires a valid Florida driver's license, safe driving record and a clean law-enforcement record.

Pyramid Pensacola is an Adult Day Training Center that builds its program around the performing and visual arts. Its arts program is unique in the nation and has attracted attention throughout Florida and beyond.
